by. Patrick J. Michaels (Editor) ... This is an interesting book more about the political and personal ramifications of the global warming/climate change discussion than the science. It is disturbing how climate change, like evolution, has become a sacred cow in the science ... Sat, 24 Nov 2018 07:04:00 GMT Climate Coup: Global Warmings Invasion of Our Government ... - The government climate scientists and mainstream media have kept at least two important truths from the public and the politicians: 1. Two thirds of the warming predicted by the climate models is due to amplification by water feedbacks, and only one third is directly due to CO₂. 2. The dispute among scientists is about the water feedbacks.
